

Turkish Entrepreneurs and GCC Funds Meet Online

Presidency of The Republic of Turkey Investment Office and the Turkish Consulate General in Dubai brought together a group of 10 Turkish entrepreneurs and 25+ early-stage investment fund managers from the Gulf region in an online event. The Turkish entrepreneurs had the opportunity to introduce themselves by making presentations to fund managers about their projects and activities, in addition to having one-on-one interviews after their presentations.

Presidency of The Republic of Turkey Investment Office and the Turkish Consulate General in Dubai brought together a group of thriving Turkish entrepreneurs and early-stage investment funds in the Arabian Gulf region in an online event with the aim of contributing to the ever-evolving entrepreneurial ecosystem in Turkey.

Along with the President of the Investment Office, Ahmet Burak Dağlıoğlu, Turkey's Consul General in Dubai, İlker Kılıç, Presidency of The Republic of Turkey Investment Office Financial Investments Manager, Ahmet Cüneyt Selçuk; 10 different Turkish entrepreneurs and more than 25 early-stage investment fund representatives operating in the Gulf Region attended the event hosted by the Presidency of The Republic of Turkey Investment Office. The online event was moderated by Ersoy Erkazancı.

Starting off by quoting Mr. President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan's words, "The biggest capital of technology is productive minds", Mr. Dağlıoğlu went on to state that the Investment Office supported the technology ecosystem in Turkey by acting as a bridge between international investors and Turkish entrepreneurs. In addition, he invited GCC investment funds to the Takeoff International Start-Up Summit, organized within the scope of Teknofest, the world's largest aviation, space and technology festival; of which the Investment Office serves as a main stakeholder.

-*-